Sebastopol

Sebastopol is located 1 hour north of the Golden Gate Bridge in Sonoma Wine Country. Wischemann Hall, featuring a beautiful wood floor, was built by the Sebastopol Saucy Squares with an all-volunteer effort in 1979.

Wischemann Hall is air conditioned, but generally we enjoy a more moderate coastal climate than even 10 miles more inland. We are located 15 miles from Bodega Bay (where Hitchcock's The Birds was filmed), and the coastal fog keeps the temperature generally cooler.

Lodging

Sebastopol has two hotels, both a few minutes' drive from the Hall. There are hotels with a variety of rates in around Santa Rosa, Cotati, Windsor and the Russian River, depending on how much you are willing to drive.

There are also many inexpensive cottage rentals in the area — check out airbnb.com, homeaway.com and vrbo.com.

- The Sebastopol Inn (closest), 800-653-1082, www.sebastopolinn.com
- Fairfield Inn & Suites (also close), 800-465-4329 www.winecountryfi.com
- We have space for a limited number of RVs in the Wischemann Hall lot, without hookups, please arrange for this in advance.
